

PhD level Professional Wanted

EEG Neurofeedback Clinical Position

Advanced Neurofeedback Center, LLC

Dallas, TX

Doctoral level mental health professional is desired for a new position at the Advanced Neurofeedback Center, LLC in Dallas, TX. Must be eligible for license in Texas as a mental health provider. A clinical person is desired to do evaluations and development of treatment plans and treatment of patients. Knowledge of EEG is preferred but not expected as this professional will be given training and development for a lead clinical position. Preference will be given to applicants that have BCIA certification (BCN) and experience in qEEG and Neurofeedback. Training will be provided if needed for certain procedures. If applicant is not yet certified mentoring will be given to support certification. The Advanced Neurofeedback Center, LLC in Dallas, TX works with children, adolescents, adults, and elders. We work with anxiety disorders, OCD, depression, ADHD, autism, Asperger's, Tourette's, learning disabilities, RAD, oppositional defiant disorder, epilepsy, traumatic brain Injury and mild TBI, eating disorders, Alzheimer's, dementia, stroke, migraines, and addictions after recovery program. Compensation is according to level of experience, education, licensing, certification, and training.

Benefits: Medical Insurance Benefit, Retirement benefit

Inquiries:

Dr. Pamela Bell, EdD, LPC, CBT
Board Certified Senior Fellow-BCIA
12820 Hillcrest Rd., C225
Dallas, TX 75230
214-557-9432
www.neurofeedbackcenterdallas.com

Job Type: Full-time